GENERAL CATALOG

Tools for organized everyday move

THE VISION BEHIND GENERAL ITEMS 2024

We are designing and choosing suitable materials with multifunction features to make the daily performance for consumers better and more organized. Having multifunctional tools helps save valuable office space. Instead of cluttering the workspace with multiple devices, a single tool can serve multiple purposes, reducing the physical footprint required. This is especially beneficial for small offices or shared workspaces.

Adding a new generation of looking great and very organized in your every day to keep you elegant and smart wherever you go, as multifunctional office tools allow employees to perform multiple tasks using a single device. This eliminates the need for separate tools, saving time and increasing productivity.

THE VALUES BEHIND OUTDOOR EXPERIENCE

Multifunction giveaways not only provide value and utility to the recipients but also create a positive brand impression. By associating their brand with innovative and practical products, businesses can enhance their visibility, increase customer loyalty, and generate word-of-mouth advertising, usability is crucial for office tools. When tools are intuitive and user-friendly, employees can quickly learn how to operate them, reducing training time and potential errors. Intuitive interfaces and streamlined workflows enhance overall productivity and employee satisfaction.

These products are designed to provide practicality, convenience, and entertainment to the recipients while also serving as effective marketing tools for businesses. flexibility in adapting to changing business needs. As companies evolve and their requirements change, having tools that can accommodate different functions allows for greater versatility. It eliminates the need to constantly upgrade or replace devices to meet new demands.

GATHER ALL OF YOUR CARDS AND MONEY IN ONE PLACE

CARD HOLDERS

RFID BLOCKING)))

WHY WE SHOULD USE RFID BLOCKING CARD HOLDERS

RFID stands for Radio-Frequency Identification. This is the technology that allows wireless transmission of information via radio waves. It is very likely that you have a credit or debit card equipped with an RFID chip, or tag, in your wallet right now. RFID credit cards enable you to pay for items by simply tapping it against a card reader as opposed to swiping or inserting your card.

now it is implemented in banking and commerce, and difficult to escape, but you can still protect your information from thieves. The simplest method to stop the transfer of data between the tag and the reader is to physically block the signal. Since RFID uses weak signals, you can easily protect your information by placing a thin layer of metal or carbon fiber between your RFID card and potential signals.

The value of genuine leather in giveaways:

The story began when we were thinking about how to impress the end client that will receive the gift from first sight, we searched a lot to get the perfect combination of materials that would leave an immediate impact in the client's mind once he gets the gift. nowadays is hard to get that special impression our our cluttered world

That moment was the perfect time to merge the 3 materials together to get the special designs and mixture of materials all over the whole set combined with usable and multifunctional products so that the gift set would be very classy and sleek at the end. we are going beyond with choosing our materials and how we mix it all together in very smart sleek special designs to fit the usability of everyday and used everywhere.

Luxury premium feeling and looking from first sight changing the whole concept of how the materials should be and how the designs must be, we are taking the leap forward to make a difference by producing and choosing every single item in the presented giftsets as well.

We gave the clients what they look for, the premium high quality behind every detail and the special mixture of good looks that motivates the clients at the end to reach the goal of gifting them which is representing the companies with a special mind image and building special relation with the brand and the client.
